It's Amanda's 11th birthday and she is super excited--after all, 11 is so different from 10. But from the start, everything goes wrong. The worst part of it all is that she and her best friend, Leo, with whom she's shared every birthday, are on the outs and this will be the first birthday they haven't shared together. When Amanda turns in for the night, glad to have her birthday behind her, she wakes up happy for a new day. Or is it? Her birthday seems to be repeating itself. What is going on?! And how can she fix it? Only time, friendship, and a little luck will tell. . .

"A ... memoir of love and faith from Hannah Brencher ... who has dedicated her life to showing total strangers that they are not alone in the world. Fresh out of college, Hannah Brencher moved to New York, expecting her life to look like a scene from Sex and the City. Instead, she found a city full of people who knew where they were going and what they were doing ... Lonely and depressed, she noticed a woman who looked like she felt the same way on the subway. Hannah did something strange--she wrote the woman a letter. She folded it, scribbled 'If you find this letter, it's for you...' on the front and left it behind. When she realized that it made her feel better, she started writing and leaving love notes all over the city ... [eventually sending 400 handwritten letters as a result of an Internet post and starting the website The World Needs More Love Letters]"--

Describes a birthday celebration in Katroo presided over by the Birthday Bird.

Here's a pinstriped large print book with spaces to list nearly 400 names with their addresses, phone numbers, email addresses and notes. The clear, big type makes it especially easy for seniors or the vision-impaired. A great gift! Bold letters on the side of all the entry pages make its easy to sort by name (4 entries/page), and there's a letter index in the front of the book. There are also two pages at the front of the book for important contacts and medical/emergency contacts. Bonus: A state postal abbreviation guide and phonetic alphabet. Please note: This is a paperback (softcover) book, and it does not have tabs. Instead, letters are clearly printed on the outer edges of each address page. This book is letter paper size (8-1/2 x 11") and features big text to make it very easy to read -- the ideal large print address book for seniors!
