SAQI-NAMA (Book of the Winebringer) Allama Iqbal Translation & Introduction Paul Smith (Sir) Muhammad (often called Allama) Iqbal was born in 1877 Sialkot within the Punjab Province of British India (now in Pakistan). During his study in Europe, Iqbal began to write poetry. He prioritized it because he believed he had found an easy way to express his thoughts. The poetry and philosophy of Rumi bore the deepest influence on his mind. Iqbal's poetry has been translated into many languages, at the time when his work was famous during the early part of the 20th century. He died in 1937. Many of Iqbal's ghazals resemble those of Hafiz and it is through the rhymes and metres he inherited from Hafiz, Ghalib and others, that he expounded his philosophy of Action and the realization of the 'Self'. Iqbal wrote one of the more recent Saqi-namas (a form perfected by Hafiz) in masnavi form in Urdu. 'The central theme of the poem is Muslim Renaissance. Iqbal sketches changing order of the world's political system and laments that Islamic Nations are still devoid of that awakening. He prays to Almighty Allah to bestow Muslims with wisdom and awareness'. Wikipedia. This beautiful translation is in the correct form.

When the world-illuminating sun rushed upon Night like a brigand, My weeping bedewed the face of the rose. My tears washed away sleep from the eye of the narcissus, My passion wakened the grass and made it grow. The Gardener taught me to sing with power, He sowed a verse and reaped a sword. In the soil he planted only the seed of my tears And wove my lament with the garden, as warp and woof. Tho' I am but a mote, the radiant sun is mine: Within my bosom are a hundred dawns.

We each one of us have our own stories. Everyone knows the story of some people whereas the story of some people is unheard. Some people are like an open book and some people are a mystery box full of surprises. I always loved sharing my stories with family, friends and peers whether it maybe a sad story or the one full of amusement. And that's why, I like living my life openly with no hesitations. I was not amazed with their reaction though since, I am the speaker I always had to prepare for a criticism. But also, this didn't stop me sharing my feelings freely. In this world, Women Empowerment is a critical issue. And Women have always proved their worth whether it be economically or in gender equality and we should admire their perseverance and beauty. I was brought up in a place where I faced daily discrimination and criticism just because I am a girl. Although as I grew up, I learned how important it is to break the stereotypes. So, I came up with the title "The Glory of our Story" as we are the first one to understand how important our story to be heard is filled with the jars of emotions. Let each story of ours glorify in the world with a brightest ray of joy.
