The University Grants Commission of India is a statutory body set up by the Government of India in accordance to the UGC Act 1956 under Ministry of Human Resource Development, and is charged with coordination, determination and maintenance of standard of higher education. The National Eligibility Test (NET), also known as UGC NET or NTA-UGC-NET, is the test for determining the eligibility for the post of Assistant Professor and / or Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) award in Indian universities and colleges. This national level entrance exam is conducted twice every year in the month of June and December. Computer Science Post- Graduates usually opt the UGC NET Computer Science subject to pursue their career either as junior research fellows or professors or both. National Testing Agency (NTA) will conduct UGC NET exam for Assistant Professor and for junior research fellowship. The UGC NET test will consist of two papers, paper 1 and 2. Paper 1 remains common for all subjects and consists of questions from research, teaching & General Aptitude on the other hand paper 2 will consist of questions from only Computer Science subjects. Historically speaking, the making of a teacher is rather a challenging and beautiful process. The same leads the nation to gain educated individuals who will now carry forward the legacy of their gurus. The passage of time stands witness to the fact that be it homemakers, home runners or breadwinners of the family, each needs to have basic education in order to lead a good life. Education is a charity that always begins at home but can only be executed properly by someone who is versed in the science of homemaking and running. A homemaker has the luxury to be able to impart knowledge in the rawest as well as the most effective manner. Since it is such a responsible job, NTA UGC NET takes up the initiative to shortlist the best of the best Home Science candidates for further studies. You will also find a plethora of UGC NET Home Science mock tests and UGC NET Home Science practice tests 2020 with us.
